

Scottish Government

The Scottish Government is the devolved government for Scotland and has a range of responsibilities that include: the economy, education, health, justice, rural affairs, housing, environment, equal opportunities, consumer advocacy and advice, transport and taxation.

The Scottish Government are committed to helping Scotland's people, businesses and public sector to improve their cyber resilience: their ability to use technology securely, and to respond to and prevent cyber crime.

In Safe, secure and prosperous: a cyber resilience strategy for Scotland we provide a framework for improving Scotland's cyber resilience supported by five actions plans:

- Private sector
- Public sector
- Third sector
- Economic Opportunities
- Cyber learning and skills
